DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8 and 15-22 (renumbered 1-16) are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's independent claim 1 is directed to a stand for a camera-equipped wireless communications device. Applicant's specification provides examples of "wireless communication devices" in the form of cell phones and Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs) (see page 1, lines 15-16). Applicant's drawings further emphasize that a "wireless communication device" is a cell phone or PDA (see Figures 1-4 and 6-8). It is within this context that independent claim 1 is being allowed.

US Patent No. 7,290,740 issued to Joy et al., US Patent No. 7,128,297 issued to Lee and Japanese Patent Document JP2003-319050 issued to Yamamura are the references found by the Examiner that disclose stands for a camera-equipped wireless communications device most similar to Applicant's. However, the '740 patent and the '297 patent do not qualify as prior art and the Japanese Patent Document '050 does not disclose all of the required limitations of claim 1. Specifically, claim 1 requires an auxiliary system connector that comprises a shaft that connects the auxiliary system connector to a ball member movably retained by the base (see Applicant's Fig. 1A) wherein a system bus a system plug (which interfaces the camera-equipped wireless communications device) and the auxiliary system connector. These limitations, taken in the context of a stand for a cell phone/PDA type device, were not found in the prior art search for either traditional camera tripod type stands or camera/cell phone type cradles.

Other related art references include:

US Patent No. 7,422,379 issued to Agevik et al.;

US Pub. No. 2002/0107043 filed by Adamson et al.;

US Pub. No. 2003/0125075 filed by Klovborg;

US Pub. No. 2004/0110544 filed by Oyagi et al.;

US Pub. No. 2004/0204056 filed by Phelps, III; and Japanese Patent Document 2004/235964 filed by Igari.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
